If you already have photos of your furniture by Henry van de Velde, we would be grateful if you allowed us to use these in the publication. You can either send them to us by email or via a download link.

If you agree to have new photos of the objects taken on location at your premises, we will naturally grant you unlimited usage rights to these after editing.

Due to the high cost of producing a two-volume catalogue raisonné of Henry van de Velde's furniture works, we regret that we cannot provide you with free print copies of the final publication. We would, however, be very happy to send you a PDF version of vols. IV/V Furniture following publication of the print version.
